EuroConference 2017: Chania, Greece, 28-30 June 2017

Welcome to the EuroConference 2017 - Download the EuroConference2017.PDF

Welcome to the official website of the International Conference on Emerging and Developing Economies (EuroConference 2017), which will be held during June 28-30, 2017, in Chania, Greece.

Each year the Society for the Study of Emerging Markets (SSEM) holds a euro-conference jointly with top institutions and universities in Europe. This year's conference will be held with University of Thessaly.

Euroconference2017 will bring together researchers interested in studying policy issues on emerging and developing economies. We welcome submissions related to economic growth and development, domestic and international institutions, monetary and fiscal policy, banking and financial markets, economic and regional integration, energy and security, international business and globalization, and other relevant issues related to emerging and developing countries. We welcome both micro and macro empirical studies and experiments in these and related areas. Participants are invited to submit their individual papers for presentation or to propose an entire panel consisting of four papers.

For more details of the conference schedule, please feel free to contact us at euroconference2017@econ.uth.gr. The full version of program will be given on May 15th, 2017.
